

Frequently Asked Questions

How early do I need to book my florist?

Book your florist after you have decided on a venue, keeping in mind 2024 is going to be a very busy year, so best to book as early as possible at least 8 to 12 months in advance.

What happens after I accept a floral quote?

After initial deposit has been paid I will collaborate with you on all details and create your own floral presentation.

Can I change my initial quote if I see something I would like to include in my wedding?

Minor changes can be made upto 21 days before your event.

What payments do you accept? Direct deposit.

Do I need to know what I want when I contact a florist?

When contacting a florist 2 questions will be asked
What is your budget? What are your requirements for flowers on your wedding day? Then we can show you how we can meet your requirements within your budget.

My Botanic Life

mybotaniclife@gmail.com

www.mybotaniclife.com.au